Zander Keig

Griffin Gate 4:30-6pm
Wednesday April 15

"It takes courage to grow up and become...

...who you really are"

e.e. cummings

"I believe many trans men, especially those of us who transitioned in our 30s, 40s and older, carry within us the remnants of trauma experienced as individuals assumed to be female, and especially lesbian, pre-transition. The weight of living in a sexist, oppressive, marginalizing, discriminatory and misogynistic culture is not easily put aside once testosterone hits our bloodstream". Zander Keig

Zander Keig, LMSW is co-editor of the 2011 Lambda Literary Transgender Nonfiction Finalist "Letters for My Brothers: Transitional Wisdom in Retrospect" (Wilgefortis, 2011), the 2015 Lambda Literary Transgender Nonfiction Nominee "Manning Up: Transsexual Men on Finding Brotherhood, Family & Themselves" (Transgress Press, 2014) and is featured in the 2014 award-winning illustrated documentary "Zanderology."

Please join us for this special personal presentation on transgender issues which will include time for discussion and questions. For further information, please contact: Lorena Ruggero at Lorena.Ruggero@gccd.edu.

Sponsored by the Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Committee (DEI) with a grant from WAC.
