

L.I.T. Program Learning Outcomes & Schedule Overview

1. Student leaders will demonstrate leadership by having accountability, asking questions and looking up answers, following through on a task assigned, taking initiative to contribute to improve office procedures, student will be able to identify their leadership style.
2. Student leaders will be able to define their own identities and engage in difficult conversations around social equity and inclusion as well as understand their role in advocating for the community in which they belong.
3. Student leaders will understand their individual and their department's role in supporting the greater mission of transforming lives through education along with understanding their role as inter-departmental liaisons in order to build a sense of student leader community across campus.

Thursday July 18 4pm-7pm <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Intro ○ Workshop 1: What is leadership? Who is a leader? ○ Workshop 2: Building Our Team ○ Closing 	Thursday July 25 4pm-7pm <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Intro ○ Workshop 1: Team Building ○ Workshop 2: Who am I? ○ Workshop 3: MBTI ○ Closing
Thursday August 1 4pm-7pm <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Intro ○ Workshop 1: Power, Privilege, and Oppression ○ Workshop 2: Leadership Styles ○ Workshop 3: Team Building ○ Closing 	Thursday August 8 4pm-7pm <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Intro ○ Diversity Circle Activity ○ Equity Line Activity ○ Dr. Nabil Abu-Ghazaleh Closing

Training Coordinators: Angel Gonzalez, Heirberto Vasquez, Maria De La Cruz, Wayne Branker

Collaborators: Renee Nasori, Jocelyn Pacheco-Fonseca