

Class Advisers Appointed at Arvin School

Californian News Service

ARVIN — Class and student body advisers at Arvin High School have been named by Edwin De Mello, principal.

Advisors for the Senior Class will be Mrs. Gen Magruder and John Cissne. Mrs. Janet Akeson and Jack Hayner are the new advisers for the Junior Class and Jack Hill and Mrs. Pat Eckersley will assist the sophomores. Mike Dake and Mrs. Elise Wainscott are the new freshman advisers, and at the moment are helping the class elect its officers for the year.

Robinson Continues

Dan Robinson will continue his assignment as director of student activities, student council adviser and director of assemblies. William Dolan will assist Robinson with the Club Council.

Gene Ballow will continue management of the student store and student finance. He will have Merlyn Deinhart to assist him with the store.

Lillah Ball is adviser to the social committee, and Sharon Gadberry to the rally committee, song and cheerleaders David Leetz, band director, as the assistant. Albert Eaton is adviser to the chorus groups.

William Dolan and Ford Luttrell are adviser and photographer for "Praeterita", the school annual, and Eddie Wright for "Bear Facts", school paper.

List Assignments

Kay Neville will be in charge of the Foreign Exchange Student Program. The present exchange student is Zuhul Gezgin from Turkey.

Special assignments include Forrest Bingham, Roger Hamstreet on gate and dance supervision; Willard Dalke, auditorium supervisor and stage manager; Audie Watts, auditorium house manager and audio-visual arrangements; Sue Divan, forensics coach; Harold Loumeau, drama coach; and Les Taylor, alumni adviser.