

"Arvin High to Open Play on Monday." The Bakersfield Californian (Bakersfield, CA) 14 November 1962: 25.

Arvin High to Open Play on Monday

Californian News Service

ARVIN—A three-act comedy, "Cheaper by the Dozen," is nearing the final stages for presentation to the public at Arvin High School next Monday and Tuesday evenings.

George McElhoe Jr. and Marie Lambeth play the leads of mother and father and younger members of the family include Pamela Haley, Tony Ward, Gary Messer, Phil Ross, Tom Curtis, Larry Winters, Patricia Murphy, Hazel Hitt and Alethia Owens.

Friends of the family are Don Holder, Bill Kinney, Sonja Cissne, Ricky Williams and Patricia Klase.

The all-school play is under the direction of Harold Loumeau, with Larry Edwards as student director.

Tickets are being distributed to the class councils with prizes offered to the individual and class selling the largest number of tickets.