

"Teaching Faculty Totals 100, All Time High." The G
21 September 1966: 1.

Teaching faculty totals 100, all time high

Twenty-three new teachers have been added to the GC faculty. This brings the total of full-time instructors to a high of 100.

The instructors and their fields are:

Melvin S. Amov, history; James W. Baker, drama; Evelyn Bookout, business education; Ethel A. Calderwood, physical education; William R. Cheeseman, food service management.

Harris C. Cousineau, counselor; William G. Givens Jr., chemistry/physics; Dana Goldman, art; Charles W. Macleod, music; Wanda L. Mahoney, mathematics; Frank G. Murdoch, history; Kenneth M. Nobilette, data processing; Donald A. Patterson, art.

Robert M. Randels, counselor; Joseph W. Richen, speech; Lawrence G. Smith, business/economics; Tanja J. Smith, French; Charles F. Vittor, English.

Nyle P. Wheatcroft, philosophy; Clint C. Whitfield, physical education; John B. Williams, police science; Sheldon Kirby, art; Fidelity Dickinson, English.

David Grey has joined the counselling staff, and Richard J. Johnson is the new assistant librarian.