

GC's Dr. Elaine McLevie is elected to the Who's Who

By Liz Glaeser

Dr. Elaine McLevie, dean of Communication Arts of Grossmont College, has recently been notified that her name will appear in the World Who's Who of Women 1979.

Who's Who is a standard, up-to-date source book of information on persons of distinction in all fields, in all parts of the world. So, what has Dr. McLevie accomplished to become a part of the World Who's Who?

1955-57—Teacher at Wellington East Girls College, New Zealand.

1960—Teacher of French,

Dean's School Singapore."

1966-68—Instructor, University of Hong Kong."

1973-75—Professor of English, University of Brasilia."

1975-77—Instructor of English at Grossmont J.C."

1976-78—President of Faculty Senate, Grossmont J.C."

1979—World Who's Who of Women in Public Service.

These are just some of Dr. McLevie's achievements. During our interview I remarked that I was talking to a real "celebrity." I asked, "How does it feel?" She replied, "Exciting. It's nice to have a pat on the back." And Dr. Elaine McLevie certainly is one who deserves more than a pat on the back. Being in the World Who's Who for Women proves it.

Dr. Elaine McLevie