

Judy Barkley—The only time I hear it is when I go by the book store. I can't say that it has any importance to me, but it helps students with their education and their training, so in that sense it's important.