

CARLSON

Stanford Thomas, passed away July 28, 1993 at Stanford Ct. Nursing Center, Santee, CA. Stanford was born 9/4/25 in Dawson, MN. He was highest ranking male student in his high school graduating class and was selected for Fulbright Teachers Exchange Program in Iran in 1950. Instead, he attended the Univ. of MN., obtaining his BA in 1950 and his MA degree in 1952. After receiving his Teachers Certification in 1954 he taught in various colleges and universities throughout the country. He taught English Composition at Grossmont College in El Cajon, CA from 1967 until his retirement in 1990. Mr. Carlson served in the US Army from 1944 to '46. He was a world traveler and studied in all parts of the world. He was an expert in English Composition. He is survived by his mother Linda Carlson and 3 nieces Jill Jackson, Cynthia and Ann Carlson all of Fullerton, CA. There are no services planned. Donations may be made in his name to the American Cancer Society.