Register now for the 2019 Creative WRITE-A-THON

Come out for a day of fundraising and fun creative writing activities to help raise money for the Grossmont College English Department's Creative Writing Program and bring critically acclaimed and internationally recognized authors to the Literary Arts Festival. Participants and their sponsors pledge amounts based on hours spent at the event, but lump-sum donations are also accepted. All it takes is a minimum of $50 in pledges to support literary arts programs and events such as the annual spring Literary Arts Festival:

- a full day of inspirational writing prompts and literary activities in multiple genres;
- notebooks welcome, or b.y.o. laptop (power outlets provided);
- continental breakfast, lunch, and H2O;
- earn 1 ticket for every $10 raised, to participate in raffles throughout the day;
- everyone who stays to the end has a chance to win a fabulous Grand Prize!
- Pledge sheets available from a participating English Dept./Creative Writing Program instructor.

Register on-line at the official 2019 Creative Write-a-Thon website: www.grossmont.edu/english/cw.

Be a Hero: Be a Sponsor

Support the Literary Arts Festival. Your contribution of $50 or more can help us empower and inspire our students by bringing to our campus a rich diversity of living, world-class poets and writers—authors who, through their writing, inspire change, raise awareness, and keep the humanities flourishing during times like these. Cash or check—both are welcome. Tax-deductible donations can also be made to our Foundation's Creative Writing Fund.

For more info, or to arrange donation drop-offs/pick-up, contact the Write-a-Thon coordinator: daniela.sow@gcccd.edu.
