Akili Smith Story - Now a Griffin Coach

All American at
Grossmont '06

First All PAC-10 QB at Oregon

#3 in '99 NFL draft
Cincinnati

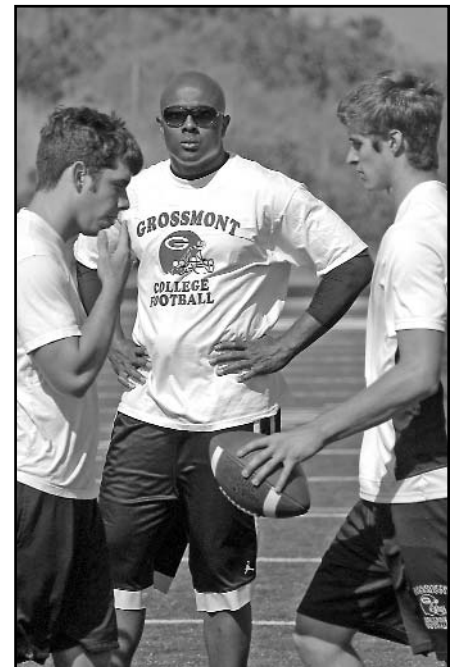

Akili Smith, All State QB while at Grossmont, All PAC-10 at Oregon, and starting QB for Cincinnati, his first year in the NFL. He was with the Bengals for three years, and then moved around in the league, played in NFL Europe and Canada after that.

After three years of pro baseball, four years of college football, and seven years of pro football, Akili, now living locally with his wife and two children, decided it was time to complete his degree and begin his coaching career. He is coaching the QBs. Akili will be sharing the knowledge he's picked up from some of the best in the business.

Akili has done a great job of coaching quarterbacks. He has also, along with Coach Garrett Robinson, introduced a "Big Time" strengthening/conditioning/speed program in operation NOW. Akili brings in a program developed from his two years at Oregon and seven years in the pros.

He didn't receive any offers out of Granite Hills High School and came to Grossmont where he led his team to 17 straight victories and a state championship in 1974. Joe earned a scholarship to Cal where he became an All American and was projected to be the #1 draft pick in 1978. However, he died of a fast spreading cancer a month after the season ended.

TERRY MORRIS - Granite Hills HS

In his second year with the Griffs, Terry became one of the best QBs in California and then earned a scholarship to the prestigious Miami of Ohio where he was named the MVP of the MAC Conference. He stayed a while with the 49'ers, and then became a teacher/coach at Granite Hills High School.

JARROD JACKSON - Lake Oswego HS

CHAD DE GRENIER - Christian HS

Chad, also a graduate of of a small high school, was tutored by Mike Jordan in the early 90's and did well enough to earn a scholarship to Washington State where he started his first year, later playing several years of Arena Ball. He's now a teacher/coach in Phoenix.

REILLY MURPHY - Torrey Pines HS

Reilly Murphy led the Griffs in 2005 to a national championship by passing for 305 yards and 2 TDs, completing 20 of his 30 passes. Reilly completed the season with 3,552 yards, 31 TD's. #### JOSH SCHMIDT - Monte Vista HS

Josh was a back up to Brian Halsey in 1998. Josh blossomed in his own, coming in several times to save the day. He transferred to a small school, St Ambrose, where he became the school's MVP athlete in 2001. The last few years he's worked his way up and is now working as an assistant with the Kansas City Chiefs.

JORDAN ADAMS - West Hills HS

After only one year at Grossmont and three starting assignments averaging over 400 yards, a "crack." He was noticed by U. of Nebraska in the state championship game against San Francisco and later was offered a scholarship. Unfortunately, he became seriously ill for a year and was never able to break into the lineup after that. He stayed on the squad and graduated 2006.
