Additional Flex Hour Opportunities During the Spring Semester:

Below is a sampling of additional options for flex hours during the semester. Check the Professional Development web page frequently for the most up-to-date information: <http://www.grossmont.edu/staffdevelop/>

In order to receive flex credit for workshops that occur outside of flex week, remember to obtain the approval of your department chair and dean prior to the workshop; to obtain approval, fill out the "Project Proposal" form, available here.

Date/Time: TBD (1.5 flex hours available)

Dr. Rick Hazlett, co-author of The American West at Risk: Science, Myths, and Politics of Land Abuse and Recovery, will give a powerful and insightful talk on sustainability and our energy dilemma in the US, and the effects of current energy policy on the Southwest.

1/23/13

February 8, March 8, April 12; Time: 1:00-4:00; Location: TBD

New Faculty Orientation Workshop—All faculty are invited to attend these workshops. Workshop topics will rotate each month, and will include both pedagogical topics and information on Campus/District departments and initiatives.

February 22, 1:00-3:00, Room TBD

Learn to Sign! Join us and learn some sign language! We will teach you some basic signs so you can chat a little with your Deaf students (and colleagues!). We will also include some information on protocol when working with your Deaf students' interpreters.

Presenters: Jennifer Carmean and Jamie Gould

February 6, February 20, and March 6, from 2:00-4:00 each day, Room TBD

Curriculum Mini-Series

Facilitator: Tate Hurvitz

The Curriculum Mini-Series will offer faculty from all disciplines the opportunity to do deep curriculum design around a range of high-impact, cross-disciplinary issues. This inaugural curriculum mini series will focus on strategies for embedding information literacy work into your curriculum.

You may claim professional development hours – or a stipend of $150 for your participation.

For more information, come to the presentation, “Rethinking Professional Development,” on Thursday of Flex Week, from 10:30-11:50. Or, contact Tate Hurvitz at tate.hurvitz@gcccd.edu
